Many Catholics from around the world participate in the ages old tradition of the Seven Churches Visitation often referring to it as a “mini-pilgrimage” which starts after the Mass of the Lords Supper on Holy Thursday. This tradition is often credited to St. Philip Neri who lived in the middle 16th century and was approved by Pope Sixtus V in 1586 as an indulgenced devotion.

(Indulgences are believed to be of assistance to a soul immediately after death.) Others argue that this traditional mini pilgrimage is referred to in the Book of Revelation, when the Seven ancient Churches are visited by an angel.

Irregaurdless of its origins this evening pilgrimage from altar to altar is a way for us to spiritually accompany Christ as he enters His Passion.

As Jesus asks of his apostles, in the Garden of Gethsemane, “Could you not spend one hour with me?”

The seven visits represent the final seven places or “stations” Jesus journeyed, from his arrest Holy Thursday to his crucifixion and death on Good Friday.

In each church, the Blessed Sacrament is placed on the Altar of Repose for Adoration. Before the altar, Catholics can meditate on the appropriate Scripture, offer prayers, and spend time with Jesus in adoration.

- Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane (Lk 22:39-46)
- Jesus bound and taken before Annas (Jn 18:19-22)
- Jesus taken before the High Priest, Caiaphas (Mt 26:63-65)
- Jesus taken before Pilate (Jn 18:35-37)
- Jesus taken before Herod (Lk 23:8-9; 11)
- Jesus taken before Pilate again (Mt 27:22-26)
- Jesus given the Crown of Thorns and led to His crucifixion 9mt 27;27-31

pray with me

Dear Jesus,
May I not sing “Hosanna” to You one day and “Crucify Him” the next day. As we come to Your Passion let me be always mindful of what You have endured so that I might be able to earn Heaven. May I recall each day what pain and agony You went through for me. I want to love You always and be Your disciple no matter how difficult it may be in these times. Jesus, give me the fortitude to be Yours and never let you down.
~Amen

If you were to visit All Saints Catholic School during this time in Lent, you would notice that starting on the Friday before the 5th Sunday of Lent, our crucifixes, statues and sacred images (except for the stations of the cross) are covered with purple cloths. It was explained to our students, teachers and staff that the focus of these final two weeks of Lent is completely upon the impending Passion of Our Lord. By temporarily depriving us of the consolation of our beautiful images, the veils sharpen our focus and help us to enter more deeply into the sorrow and austerity of this time. As we continue on our Lenten journey, we are grateful for the opportunity to be immersed in our Catholic faith. If you are interested in learning more about ASCS for your child, please contact us! Thus, they went out to meet him, carrying branches of palm and shouting, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel." This Palm Sunday, we reflect on the significance of Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem. Those who went into the streets to meet him had witnessed or heard of the miraculous resurrection Jesus had performed. The palm leaf, being the symbol of victory, triumph and peace. The donkey he rode signified his peaceful coming. We pray that as we prepare our hearts for the death and resurrection of Jesus, we always remember to celebrate the life he lived while he still walked the earth. May we always strive to live a life like Christ. Whether at school, in our homes or out in our community, may we embody the spirit of Jesus in our words and actions. At St. Joseph Catholic Academy, our greatest mission is to shape and prepare our students to live a life of integrity, respect, commitment, generosity, humility, spirituality, generosity, acceptance and accountability. Enrollment is currently underway at SJCA for all grades in the 2023-2024 School Year.

Any families interested in enrollment information or setting up a tour should contact the admissions office at admissions@sjcawi.org.
