Parish Mission Statement:
To Inspire Personal Encounters with Christ that Transform Hearts and Lives!

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Cut to the Heart

Everyone who has been married knows this feeling: you're in the midst of a disagreement with your spouse. You've really dug in your heels. You're ready to die on this hill. And you have the awful, heartbreaking realization that you are wrong. Whatever it is you're arguing about, you're wrong. You.

So where do you go from here? The only way forward is to own it. Fess up. Grab a fork and dig into that humble pie. It makes me cringe just to write about it, because it's the worst feeling.

I use the example of marriage because it's the one I'm most familiar with — my closest relationship, the one that teaches me the most about who I am and who God asks me to be. But this is a universal experience, and everyone — single or married, child or adult, lay or ordained — knows how badly it feels to realize that you're wrong. You're human. You messed up.

It is hard to recognize that the Christian life is one of ongoing repentance. It is painful to acknowledge the ways in which we are falling short, even as we strive to follow in Christ's example.

It can, in the words of today's reading, "cut to the heart."

But that feeling of despair is what propels forward motion. We have to allow ourselves to feel bad, that's the fertile ground of penitence. We are meant to have not just life, but life "more abundantly." Stasis isn't the goal. Baptism isn't the finish line.

Examining our conscience is hard. It cuts to the heart. It cuts to the truth.

"Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins." ~Acts 2:38

World Day of Prayer for Vocations

April 30, 2023 marks the 60th Anniversary of World Day of Prayer for Vocations. The purpose of this day is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and to the consecrated life. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), consecrated life in all its forms (male and female religious life, societies of apostolic life, consecrated virginity), secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life. Please pray for vocations.

Our Extended Hours For Confession Will Continue Until Further Notice

There are many reasons why some do not go to Confession. Fear, nerves, embarrassment, length of time., not enough time. Ironically some might think their sin is so bad that they can't imagine speaking to Jesus in the confessional. Remember no matter how bad you think your sin might be it isn't as bad as not going. Until further notice, Confession will be offered from 3:45 pm - 4:45 pm Saturday's and 8:45 am - 9:45 am Sundays.

First Friday Masses

Dear God, You have created so many people with different abilities and talents. May those individuals, who strive to know You, and have a heart of love and understanding be drawn not only closer to You but also consider following You in a special way. One of those special ways is to serve You as priests, nuns, monks, and deacons. We, Your people, need those leaders, who are visible signs of Your love. May individuals be drawn to the consecrated life to serve both You and Your people. Give those individuals the courage and direction of the Holy Spirit to seek You in Your Service. Amen

Our families say it best... "We love the small class sizes, the amazing teachers, the faith-based education and the amazing community of parents that we have found over the years. We love that our kids are being exposed to the same values and beliefs that we instill in them on a daily basis not only at home but also at school. We feel blessed and thankful for such an amazing school community for our kids and our family to be a part of for years and years to come!" If you are looking for a successful, faith filled learning environment with a dedicated staff and a Catholic education based on Faith, Values, and Rigor, then ASCS is the school for your child! We offer 3 year-old Preschool- 8 th grade on one campus. Enrollment for the 2023-24 school year is under way. Mission: Together we will teach children to see the world through the eyes of Christ and to model the lives of the Saints in a rigorous academic environment.
