Building on the Cornerstone

Before I married my husband, I assumed there were “ugly houses” and “pretty houses,” and that was that. But Matt is an architect, someone who reads books with titles like “A Field Guide to American Houses” for fun and who uses the term vernacular architecture like he knows what it means.

Through him, I’ve come to learn a lot about why certain structures simply don’t have a pleasing look. There is a logic to ugliness, as it turns out. One of the main reasons a building or a home might strike some of us as ugly is because it has undergone a careless renovation. Whether out of laziness or an effort to be cost-effective, additions are made that depart from the architectural style of the original structure. The result is slapdash, confusing — ugly, for lack of a better word.

What is added on later must somewhat resemble the original. If you want to depart dramatically from the original style of a building, it’s better to build a separate structure altogether.

I think of this principle when I consider Christ as the “cornerstone.” We know we are called to model ourselves on Christ, to build on his example. But so often we cherry-pick elements of his message and attempt to build on it with additions that make no sense.

When someone looks at us, at our lives, they should be able to tell after whom that life is patterned. We must resemble the cornerstone, if we do not, it will be apparent, unseemly. You can’t see God the Father without embracing God the Son. You can’t chart the future of a house without any thought for its past.

If Christ is not our inspiration, he will be our contradiction.

“...like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house...to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.”
~Peter 2:5

*Congratulations and blessings to the families and their children who are receiving
First Holy Communion this weekend. May Jesus move into your heart and make it home!*

Did You Know?

The most repeated Sacrament of our Catholic faith is Holy Communion. We receive this precious gift of nourishment at Mass as we join together forming the “Body of Christ”. Strengthened by this precious gift of Jesus’ body we then go out into the world taking Him with us to continue His example of spreading the love of God.

Feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, clothe the naked, give shelter to travelers, visit the sick and those imprisoned are commonly known as “The Seven Acts of Mercy”. These simple acts are wonderful example ways we can spread His love.

Internationally Acclaimed Pianist, Composer and Speaker Eric Genuis - In Concert

This Tuesday at 7:00 pm in St. Anthony’s Church the Knights of Columbus Council #973 Habitat Program is sponsoring a free concert. Donations would be appreciated and go directly to Concerts for Hope and the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary who recently lost their housing due a fire in their convent. Invite your friends!

Dear Mary, Our Mother, be with each of our mothers, you whose love for your son was so sincere and so fervent to the end of His life despite his persecution and crucifixion. You never abandoned Your son whom you love so deeply. Let our mothers, too, never give up on their children during their times of crisis. Help mothers to be patient, kind, sensitive, and persevering as well as possessing laughter and joy and wonder in being with their children. Dear Jesus bless all mothers, grandmothers, godmothers, and all women who serve the role of mothers. Grant them Your Grace and Mercy. Amen

On April 20th, we had our St. Joseph Catholic Academy Scholarship Awards Ceremony. Over 120 scholarships were awarded to students in our Lower and Upper Campuses. SJCA has been truly blessed by the generosity of our donors, many of which are alumni of our school. All of our contributors are committed to making Catholic Education affordable to all those who seek it. Our gratitude is abounding to all of our Scholarship Donors. Thank you, from the bottom of our hearts! Enrollment is still open for the 2023-2024 school year! If you are interested in how your child's future can be changed by a Catholic Education, contact the admissions department at admissions@sjcawi.org.
